Cards & Games

The Cards & Games Committee Chairwoman determines the time, date, location, price, and menu for this annual social. She is responsible for reservations, managing game tables, obtaining a grand prize for the raffle drawing, and selecting the table favors. Volunteers assist the Chair with preparation for the event and set the tables with favors.

Decorative Design

The Decorative Design Chairwoman is responsible for table decorations at all luncheons and other decorations as needed for special events. She determines and designs the decorations based on the season of the year, program topic, etc., while staying within budget. Volunteers assist with making the decorations and helping place them on every table at the venue.

Volunteers on this committee will find many varied opportunities such as designing, copying and distributing the program hand out, managing reservations, getting raffle gifts, designing and setting up raffle baskets and prizes, and getting table favors or table prizes. Computer skills needed for some volunteer positions. Models from the membership are needed and there are other opportunities to help the day of the event.

Volunteers will find opportunities to help with filling event bags if needed, check-in, designing, copying and distributing the program hand out, and acting as docents for the tour homes. Computer skills needed for some volunteer positions.

Hostesses

The Hostesses Committee Chairwoman is responsible for assigning volunteers to act as hostesses to greet attendees as they arrive for monthly luncheon meetings and special events. Hostesses will also hand out the luncheon newsletters if needed, direct all members to the check-in table, assist anyone who needs help finding a seat, and help with any issue that may arise. Volunteers of this committee will be assigned a specific day or days to act as a hostess. They will arrive early at the venue, greet members as they arrive, hand out luncheon newsletters if needed, show members and guests to the check-in table, help them find a seat if necessary, and assist in resolving any issues. Volunteers will also work with the Membership Committee Chairwoman to identify new members attending luncheons so they can be given pin-on gardenias identifying them as new members.

Invocation

The Invocation Committee Chairwoman is responsible for assigning volunteers to present the invocation at various club functions. Volunteers will be scheduled to deliver an appropriate invocation for a specified month's luncheon meeting or special event. It is helpful if volunteers enjoy public speaking.

Membership

The Membership Committee Chairwoman is responsible for presenting membership applications to the Board for approval and ensuring the membership list agrees with the Treasurer's record of paid memberships. She also writes a note of welcome to each new member, introduces them at the monthly luncheons and provides them with a welcome gift. It is helpful if the Chairwoman enjoys public speaking. Volunteers assist with the distribution of the annual yearbook, maintain an accurate data base of members' skill sets and interests for all committee chairs and notify the Hostess Committee Chairwoman of new members attending luncheons.

Programs

The Programs Chairwoman is responsible for arranging all aspects of the monthly luncheon programs. She identifies guest speakers, schedules them, and confirms their attendance at the luncheons. The Programs Committee Chairwoman also introduces the speakers, selects gifts for them, and sends them thank you notes. It is helpful if the Chairwoman enjoys public speaking.

Publicity

The Publicity Committee Chairwoman is responsible for all phases of club publicity. She identifies publicity opportunities to promote the club and also informs local media (Marco Island Eagle, Coastal Breeze, Naples Daily News and Island Radio Station 98.1) of major fund raising and other events for press coverage. Raffles

The Raffle Committee Chairwoman is responsible for getting raffle prizes from local businesses for special events, conducting the monthly luncheon raffles, and distributing prizes as the winning tickets are drawn. She keeps the web site up to date, including Board of Directors information, events calendar, uploading pictures, club history, membership application and sending the annual hosting bill to the Treasurer for payment. Web Master needs to have proven computer skills.

She ensures the annual yearbook contents are accurate and published in a timely manner. The Editor is also responsible for designing and copying newsletters for the luncheons. She needs to have computer skills.

All active members of the Marco Island Woman's Club are expected to take part in the events that raise funds for our scholarships and other charitable causes. If you have any questions, feel free to ask any of the officers, board members or current committee chairwomen. Thank you for your interest!
